

Nonwovens Supplier Excellence Award 2013

Rockline Industries is pleased to announce that Fiber Dynamics' High Point, NC facility as the recipient of its 2013 Nonwovens Supplier Excellence Award.

The Nonwovens Supplier Excellence Award was created in 2008 to enable Rockline to continually evaluate and rate its global nonwovens supply base and to recognize the best in the group.

The award was formally presented at the annual Rockline Industries Nonwoven Supplier Presentation. This meeting was held in conjunction with INDA's VISION 2014 conference in Dallas, Texas and is attended by Rockline's key nonwoven suppliers from around the world.

Jim Heery, President; Patrick Heery, VP Meltblown Operations; and John Field, VP Meltblown Sales were present to accept the Nonwovens Supplier Excellence Award on behalf of Fiber Dynamics' High Point, NC facility.

Fiber Dynamics, joins previous Supplier Excellence recipients: Glatfelter-Gatineau, Ahlstrom-Windsor Locks, Jacob Holm-France, and Ginni-India.
